

What We Do

EISCC provides a forum to work for the common good of Eastside communities to address human needs and improve the quality of life.

We educate, advocate, initiate, coordinate, and support issues through task forces and other means.

Issues include: affordable housing and homelessness, legislative advocacy, hunger, cultural diversity, and mental health, among many others.

Monthly education sessions and special events, including the successful Oct. 2019

Collaborative Event with ARCH, lead to future actions:
